Introduction

The idea of an award and recognition scheme is intended to be a subtle way to build a spirit of community and service among the members of STARFLEET Medical.

The last few editions of the manual moved away from the previous system of using ribbons to designate awards to a series of unique designs that are the intellectual property of STARFLEET Medical. Anyone who received an award under previous iterations of the scheme is fully entitled to wear them if they so wish. The change of design, and in some case, of name does not in any way detract from the achievements that have been previously recognised.

All STARFLEET Medical awards are recorded in the STARFLEET Medical – Membership Log and a Starfleet Medical Service Record is available on request.

Training under STARFLEET Medical is managed via a separate training program. Full information can be found on the STARFLEET Medical website at: <https://medical.sfi.org/training/training-manual/>

We would like to acknowledge the work of the officers of STARFLEET Medical who assisted in the design of this, and the previous editions of this manual:

LCDR David Yee, SFMD

Application and Nomination

Applications for nominations are equally welcomed from either the member concerned or from others.

For each award, full information must be provided; failure to do so will cause a delay to the issuing of the award.

Unless a delay in awarding is requested, for example to allow for presentation at a chapter or region event, awards will, when approved, be sent directly to the relevant ASG for presentation. They will be announced regionally as well as being announced on the main STARFLEET Medical Facebook Group.

Applications can be made directly via the form on the STARFLEET Medical website:

Please ensure that you select the correct award from the dropdown lists.

While STARFLEET Medical staff endeavour to process awards in a timely fashion, if applications are being made for presentation at specific events, at least 2 week's notice is requested.
